Haliburton County Enviro-Heroes Awards Ceremony

The Haliburton Highlands Land Trust (HHLT) invites you to nominate Enviro-Heroes to be honoured at our Gala Celebration of Environmental Excellence on the evening of Friday, May 28, 2010 at the Minden Hills Community Centre.

An Enviro-Hero has made a major contribution to the protection and sustainability of our natural resources and environment through education, stewardship, healthy living, "green" business or the arts in Haliburton County. An Enviro-Hero may be an individual, business, or organization. A distinguished panel will select the winners in each of six categories. The winners will receive an award specially designed by renowned artist, Mary Anne Barkhouse, a past member of HHLT's Board of Directors.

Nominations must be submitted by Friday, April 2, 2010.

Enviro-Hero Categories

1. Health - a person or organization whose environmental activities promote, exemplify or result in healthy lifestyles. (Past award winners: Margaret & Peter Brogden and Rosie Kadwell)
2. Stewardship – a person, landowner or organization that has provided leadership in conserving and protecting our water, forests, flora, fauna or mineral resources. (Past award winners: Ed Poropat and Donald Benson)
3. Education - a person or organization that has effectively organized and delivered environmental education opportunities for children, youth, or adults. (Past award winners: Jim McHardy and Chris Magwood)
4. Business - a business or non-profit organization that has excelled in developing "green" business practices and/or providing "green" products/services that protect the environment. (Past award winners: Haliburton Forest & Wildlife Reserve Ltd and Glenside Ecological Services)

5. The Arts – an artist who has produced a body of work that celebrates our natural environment. (Past award winners: John Lennard and Wendy Bateman)

6. Youth – a student up to 18 years of age who has demonstrated a commitment to the protection and sustainability of our natural resources and environment through education, stewardship, healthy living, or the arts. (Past award winner: Kyla Suchovs)

(Past 2008 Enviro-Hero of the Year: Heather Ross)
